

Volunteering Opportunities

Hastings area - January 2019

Here are a few volunteering opportunities that we are highlighting this month. Are you interested in any of them?

Volunteer Garden Project Workers required at the Robsack Centre

The Robsack Centre would like to transform its grounds but can only do this with your help. Volunteers with imagination (and boots!) required to plan and help work on the grounds. Great opportunity for some people to share skills whilst enjoying the benefits of community gardening. Please contact Graham Hodgson on 01424 855222 or email ghodgson@fsncharity.co.uk

St Michael's Hospice - Board of Trustee

St Michael's Hospice wants to welcome new Trustees to the Hospice. The Trustees play a crucial role in the Hospice. They are responsible for the strategic leadership of the charity and act as guardians to ensure its success, now, and importantly for generations to come.

Café Volunteers

Education Futures Trust are looking for volunteers with catering experience to help in their community café in Ore Community Centre. We are looking for volunteers for 1 or 2 days a week from January. One day in general running of the café and one day helping a tutor in alternative education for secondary school aged students. For more information and to apply please contact Rae on 01424 722241 or raee@educationfuturestrust.org

East Sussex Hearing Resource Centre

Hard of Hearing Group Facilitator voluntary vacancies in Hastings and Bexhill. The groups offer a friendly, relaxed environment where members can meet other deaf or hard of hearing people for a tea or coffee. The facilitator would set up the meeting space, ensure refreshments are available, meet and greet members, facilitate discussions, provide information, advice and support, and be involved with promoting the group within their local area. Please contact Glynwen Chetcuti: manager@eshrc.org.uk 01323 722505 / 07950 855580 www.eshrc.org.uk
