

Volunteering Opportunities

Hastings area – March 2021

Here are a few volunteering opportunities that we are highlighting this month. Are you interested in any of them?

Southdown Housing – Are seeking People in Partnership volunteers to improve mental health & emotional wellbeing care and support across East Sussex.

As a volunteer you will be invited to share your experiences alongside others. You can be involved in activities, events and projects within your community and you'll be offered opportunities to attend planning and development meetings with decision makers.

Throughout your volunteering journey, you'll be provided with support and training to develop your skills and ensure you feel comfortable in your role. To find out more contact Mel Willson (Southdown Volunteer Coordinator): mel.willson@southdown.org / 07964 206828

St Michaels Hospice – Currently have a variety of remote volunteering opportunities available including Wellbeing IT Tech Buddy, E-Learning / IT Support Buddy, Telephone Befriending, Wellbeing Correspondence and Wellbeing Remote Support. Here is a link to the recruitment page for these roles:
